

MakoDays
2025

Ewa Koprowska
Project Manager
MakoLab Consulting

An expert with more than fifteen years' experience in process optimisation, change management and implementing innovative technological solutions, Ewa helps organisations to identify potential automation, raise their operational effectiveness and streamline collaboration between their business and technology teams. Specialising in combining business and technological perspectives, she serves as a bridge connecting users and IT providers. She is also a certified lean tools trainer and a seasoned workshop facilitator.