

MakoDays
2025

Maria Dymitruk, PhD

Attorney-at-Law, AI Expertise Leader
Research Centre for Legal and Economic Issues of Electronic Communication
University of Wrocław

A specialist in the field of new technology law, Maria Dymitruk focuses in particular on AI, IP and IT. With her profound understanding of the legal and business conditions for IT and AI projects, she has extensive experience in supporting organisations through the processes.

She began investigating the use of AI in law at the University of Wrocław's Research Centre for Legal and Economic Issues of Electronic Communication in 2014 and obtained her PhD with honours there with a dissertation on the admissibility of using AI in civil proceedings. During her doctoral studies, she completed research stays in Canada, at the University of Montreal and in Italy, at Università Mediterranea in Reggio Calabria.

Uniwersytet
Wrocławski

As a participant in numerous national and international research projects at the intersection of law and technology, she has wide experience in team management, legal project coordination and international collaboration, having worked in conjunction with entities like the European Commission and the European Union Agency for Fundamental Rights.

The president of the European Bars Federation New Technologies Commission, she also represents the Polish bar association in the work of the Council of Bars and Law Societies of Europe and is a member of the International Association for AI and Law, the AI Working Group at Poland's Ministry of Digital Affairs and the Digitalisation Problems Team of the Civil Law Codification Commission at the Polish Ministry of Justice.

She has a substantial portfolio of scientific and ind publications in the field of AI, is recognised both as a trainer and a speaker at events in the field of IT law and teaches at the University of Wrocław and the University of Silesia in Katowice.

After graduating with honours from the Faculty of Law, Administration and Economics at the University of Wrocław and also studying law in Krakow, at the Jagiellonian University's Faculty of Law and Administration, she completed her legal training with distinction at the District Chamber of Legal Advisors in Wrocław.

